Description

The property Villa Mouries near Maussane les Aliplles has a surface of more than 420m² and dominates with a 180° totally unobstructed view, the surrounding countryside with its olive trees.

It is situated at the foot of the Alpilles hills, in it's wildest part with magnificent walks to be made on foot or on bicycle and a very near a beautiful lake in less than 1 km.

The villa is decorated in soft pale colours making it bright and airy in all rooms. The large open plan living room, dining area and it's kitchen with it's high beamed ceiling and patio window to the terrace. The living room part with open fire place ample seating area, with dining area seating 10 and just beyond the fully equipped kitchen with American fridge freezer and a with bar counter separating the dinning area.

There are 5 bedrooms, all on the ground floor with 3 shower rooms and 1 bathroom.

Outside there is a garden with numerous olive trees, lavender, jasmines, various aromatic plants, a large swimming pool 20m x by 4.5m including a pool house. Large terrace with pergola with seating area and dining al fresco and a gas barbecue

This area of Provence boasts history and beautiful scenery not only of the Alpilles hills but also of the ruined castle which dominates the landscape surrounding Les Baux de Provence The castle can be traced back to the 10th century. The local people finally destroyed it in 1632 to bring an end to the centuries of conflicts, revolts, sieges and wars of religion, which had taken, place there. Today, quaint artisan shops and restaurants line the tiny cobbled streets. A wider range of amenities can be found at Mausanne les Alpilles and at St-Remy-de-Provence, birthplace of Nostradamus, both of which are within easy reach of this villa. 25 minutes drive north from this Les Baux de Provence villa is the medieval Papal city of Avignon, now a UNESCO World Heritage site and site of the world' s biggest gothic palace. The city of Arles is just to the south with an impressive Roman arena, once holding 20,000 spectators. This is the gateway to the wetlands of the Camargue with its diverse wildlife ranging from pink flamingos to white horses and black fighting bulls.
