Villa Vermelho is an incredible property located at the heart of Armação de Pêra. Built during the turn of the 20th century and inspired by the opulent luxury of the Belle Époque era emerging in the South of France, the house remained as a family summer home for almost 80 years. This sense of tradition creating an intimacy that welcomes guests into the company of friends. Now listed as a historical building, the property perches directly on the Armação de Pêra seawall, offering guests dramatic ocean views (alongside the quaint Church square) and easy access to the beach.

The property comprises a main house and a small guest house called the "White House" (situated in front of the property).
The renovation of the villa was committed to retain as many of the original elements as possible, a unique wooden floor, antique chandeliers, and a spectacular staircase were all lovingly recreated. The Moroccan influences of the architecture, with geometric designs on the shutters and ceilings, are also elegant reminders of the region's rich cultural history.

In the Main House, there is a large open kitchen, a living and dining area with a large terracotta terrace and spectacular seafront setting. On the ceilings, sculpted grape vines are a reminder of those that once thrived in front of the villa itself. The charming staircase leads to two en-suite bedrooms and a living room where a terrace makes the most of the breath-taking views. A secret door leads to a further rooftop terrace that, many years ago, the owner built to hear the townsfolk sing songs dedicated to local fisherman at the church of "A Nossa Senhora dos Navegantes."
The Annex is a small guest house situated in front of the property. It reimagines some of the distinctive character of the main house in a more contemporary aesthetic. This building offers a duplex suite with living room and terrace downstairs, and an en-suite bedroom upstairs, as well as a further self-contained studio with bedroom, shower room and balcony. The annex is perfect for younger members of a family looking for their own space. The villa also features a wine fridge.
You can also enjoy wellness area including a treatment room and a sauna.

Outside the terrace is built into the seawall, giving the impression of a stay upon the ocean itself. Despite its central location and the comforts of contemporary luxury, the secluded villa offers an evocative escape, a chance to journey back to simpler times in an authentic alternative to the modern hotel experience.You will enjoy the charming heated pool 8m x 3m and the sun terrace.
With direct access to the beach and the historical town centre, it promises all the traditions of the Algarve from its doorstep-from the picturesque church square it overlooks, to the fantastic flavours of the beach front restaurant below.

Guests looking for the ultimate luxury break are able to request a private chef, waiting staff, and a personal assistant, as well as take advantage of the exceptional facilities at sister property of the resort. These facilities include a brand-new 17,250sq ft Sisley Spa (that includes 14 treatment rooms and a fitness studio offering panoramic floor to ceiling views over the resort's lush gardens), 11 superb restaurants (ranging from casual, beachside cuisine to 2 Michelin starred fine dining), a wine cellar that boasts Portugal's largest private wine collection, half day trips in the private yachts...
