In Les Alpilles Natural Regional Park, Bastide Sixte offers a refined Provençal escape close to the pretty Provençal village of Eygalières. Here you are perfectly placed to explore some of the region's most enchanting destinations from picture-postcard villages to iconic landscapes of Provence.
Eygalières 2.5km is a picturesque Provençal gem known for its charming lanes, traditional Friday morning market and commanding views over the Alpilles mountains from its hilltop. Gastronomes should reserve a table at one of the high-end restaurants including the Michelin starred Maison Haché.
A short drive brings you to Saint-Rémy-de-Provence 14km famed for its Roman ruins at Glanum and the artistic legacy of Vincent van Gogh. Stroll its vibrant streets lined with art galleries, shops and cafés that spill onto leafy squares. It's bustling Wednesday morning market is a highlight of the week.
Venture further into Les Alpilles and discover the dramatic hilltop citadel of Les Baux-de-Provence 24km, a medieval marvel with breathtaking panoramas of surrounding olive groves. Nearby Maussane-les-Alpilles 20km charms with its relaxed atmosphere, welcoming restaurants and an authentic village feel – a lovely spot for a leisurely lunch beneath the plane trees.
For golf enthusiasts, the region offers world-class options. Tee off amid olive groves and limestone peaks at the scenic Golf de Servanes 17km near Mouriès or enjoy the rolling fairways of Golf des Baux de Provence 21km, both providing a peaceful yet challenging round surrounded by nature.
Day trips open up even more Provençal wonders. The historic city of Avignon 30km, with its imposing Palais des Papes and vibrant markets, lies within easy reach. Or explore the antique-lovers' paradise of L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue 27km, where riverside canals and charming brocantes await (the main market takes place on a Sunday morning).
To the east, the famous perched villages of the Luberon beckon – wander the cobbled streets of Gordes, admire the vineyards around Ménerbes or soak in the extraordinary beauty of Oppède le Vieux. With Eygalières as your base, the best of Provence is yours to savour.
