Description

The Chalet Eric located a few minutes' walk from the centre of the resort and 100 metres from the ski slopes, is a comfortable and traditional mountain chalet. The large surface area of 300m² makes the chalet Eric one of the largest of the station accommodating up to twelve people.

The exterior architecture of this traditional chalet is that of authentic Savoyard style covered in wood with gray stone and slate on the roof. It fits perfectly in the middle of the snowy pines that border the Chalet.

Its large windows let in the sun and the natural light which sublimates the interior. This mountain chalet is decorated in a Savoyard style with wooden furniture cushions and its local embroidery. The centre-piece of the Chalet Eric is undoubtedly the living room with a large wood and stone fireplace that warms both the living room and the dining room on cold winter evenings with TV, a dining area connected to the modern kitchen by the sliding door. A large terrace offers an extraordinary panorama of the snow-covered peaks. For lunches at the chalet, you will hesitate between the friendly and authentic dining area and the large terrace with views of the summits.

Enjoy spacious living areas and the facilities offered by the Chalet Eric. This mountain Chalet welcomes up to twelve guests in six rooms. Its magnificent master bedroom with a dressing room, spa bath and private balcony will delight its occupants. The Chalet Eric is the promise of conviviality and relaxation with a sauna, spa bath and a cinema room.

With family or friends, you will love this large mountain Chalet in Meribel. Its open spaces, decoration and levels of fittings will make the success of your stay.
