Description

The Chalet “Ferme de mon Grand-Père” located in the very privileged area of Méribel Mussillon at the entrance of the resort is certainly a family chalet. Its large size areas and numerous upscale amenities will delight its occupants.

The exterior architecture of this family chalet is authentic, its mountain style of wood and gray stone blends perfectly with the surrounding postcard scenery. Inside the chalet is a subtle blend of wood and old stones associated with contemporary furniture elements with clean lines like the sofas in the lounge or the large gray rectangular table in the dining room that has magnificent designer leather and aluminum chairs.
Enjoy spacious living areas and upscale amenities offered by the family Chalet “Ferme de Mon Grand-Père”. This family chalet accommodates 16 people in 8 bedrooms. The level of service of this chalet is worthy of the greatest resorts.

On the lower level of this family chalet, take the time to relax in an area dedicated to leisure and well-being the swimming-pool with waterfall, the Jacuzzi or Sauna, while the sportier bunch can benefit from cardio training if the days on the 600 km of slopes of the Trois Vallées domain has not been exerting enough. The younger will compete in billiards or tournaments of boisterous video games.
With family or friends, you will love the chalet Ferme de mon Grand-Père. This family chalet, with its traditional architecture, its decoration and its high-end equipment associated with the quality of service that is required for a luxury Chalet in the Alps, is the promise of a successful holiday in Méribel

The Méribel logo speaks volumes about the identity of this charming resort internationally renowned for its ski area, its architecture, and its quality of services, one immediately falls in love with this resort in the heart of the largest ski area in the world " Les Trois Vallées"
