Description

Beautiful 3-bedroom villa in the Luberon in Provence. Lovely living rooms, refined decor, garden with swimming pool and terrace with sun loungers.

Villa Grenache is a beautiful 3-bedroom holiday home set in a Luberon wine estate owned by a famous English film-maker. The property offers an idyllic setting, with elegant interiors, a well-kept garden, a heated swimming pool (May to September) and a wine cellar. You will enjoy a unique experience in the heart of Provence, just a stone's throw from the charming village of Oppède le Vieux. If you want more space, you can also rent Villa Syrah next door (the villas are separate but the gardens can be linked).

As soon as you arrive at the villa, you'll be seduced by the subtle blend of Provencal charm and modernity.
The communal areas are spacious and tastefully decorated, offering two elegant lounges and a fully equipped kitchen.
The three sumptuous bedrooms, all with King-size beds and en suite bathrooms, promise absolute comfort for restful nights.
The entire décor, from the furniture to the works of art and film accessories, reflects the villa's distinctive refinement.

The property's well-kept gardens are a haven of peace, offering two covered terraces ideal for relaxing and dining al fresco while sharing convivial moments with family and friends.
The heated swimming pool (May to September) invites you to take a dip, with its breathtaking views over the vineyards, cypresses, pines and hills of the Luberon.

Ideally located in the Luberon region of Provence, Villa Grenache is close to the charming village of Oppède le Vieux, which offers a journey back in time with its medieval streets and breathtaking views of the surrounding area. The emblematic villages of the Luberon, such as Ménerbes, Roussillon and Gordes, are full of local markets, regional produce and local artisans to discover.
There's no shortage of outdoor activities, from canoeing and kayaking on the River Sorgue to hiking and visits to UNESCO World Heritage sites such as Avignon and Saint-Rémy-de-Provence.
Offering an authentic and peaceful setting for a getaway in Provence, Villa Grenadine is the ideal place to discover the hidden treasures of this emblematic region of southern France.
