Description

A lovely Provencal property situated close to the hilltop medieval village of Grimaud. The garden is delightful with a beautiful pool and water feature. It is also short drive to the village and the attractions of Port Grimaud nearby and Saint Tropez. The accommodation is on two floors with the living room and dining area opening directly onto the attractive garden with its pool, terraces and outdoor seating areas.

The interiors are homely with lots of light, cream and whitewashed walls, tastefully furnished, with French windows, terracotta floors and an attractive beam ceiling. From the entrance hall there is a large living room with comfortable sofas, open fireplace and French doors opening onto the covered terrace and garden. An archway leads to the dining room and to breakfast bar separates the kitchen from the dining area, which is fully equipped with fridge and freezer, gas hob cooker, electric oven, microwave, dishwasher and Nespresso machine.
To the rear is a ladder for grocery storage, extra fridge Freezer and laundry facility with washing machine and dryer.
There is a separate WC
To the other side, there is a double bedroom (queen size /160 cm bed), with French windows giving direct access to the terrace and pool, en suite walk-in shower and washbasin.
There is a separate WC

On the first floor there is a spacious master bedroom King size bed /180cm with covered terrace and view to the garden and pool below. The room is open plan with its bathroom with bath, double washbasin and separate WC. There are two further standard double bedrooms (140 cm beds), ideal for children or teenagers. Both have en-suite shower and washbasin and share a separate WC on the landing.

There is a pretty garden with shrubs and lawn well protected and overlooking some vines. The covered terrace with seating area and a L shaped pool with a cascading water. There is a boule pitch as well.
