Description

La Colline de Turc is a very spacious and peaceful property has a lovely garden and spectacular views of the Bay of St Tropez, Grimaud Castle and its windmill and is just a few minutes from the ancient village of Grimaud. With elements of both Provence and the Cote d'Azur, Grimaud has a real soul. Its medieval atmosphere transports you through time with its period houses, narrow streets, small squares and archways. Here you'll find the oldest church in the Gulf of Saint Tropez, which holds many secrets and the famous Castle, acting as a lookout over the surrounding countryside, with its own stories. Grimaud is nicknamed the flower village as flowers can be seen everywhere. In containers under windowsills, falling like a waterfall from balustrades and in large flower pots by the doors.

Villa La Colline Turc consist of 5 bedrooms and six bathrooms accommodating 10 guests, with it's entrance hall with the guests cloakroom . Open plan living room with fireplace and doors to terrace, garden and views over towards the bay of St Tropez.
