Description

Chalet San Pietro is a real haven of peace, perfect for your luxury ski holiday in Courchevel. Sleeping up to 10 adults and 4 children, across 5 floors, this beautifully designed chalet is ideal for groups of families and friends looking for a stay in the luxury hamlet of La Stelvio.

After a long day on the slopes, guests will be invited back to the generous space of the open-plan living area, found on the chalet's top floor. Perfect for entertaining and relaxing, high-vaulted ceilings and traditional alpine elements feature, harmoniously blending with the elegant, chic luxury furnishings. Warm any frosted toes next to the magnificent fireplace, seated on the long, comfortable sofas - perfectly positioned in front of the large floor to ceiling windows and sensational snowy scenery outside. In warmer months, the chalet's terrace area is perfect for enjoying a drink and getting a closer look at the breath-taking views.

In the evening, dine on the large wooden dining table, perfect for satisfying any ski appetites. The fully-equipped kitchen is the ideal setting for the loving preparations of your evening meals, tucked away in the corner but still close enough for the nominated cook to join in the after-ski conversations. A breakfast bar also features, suitable for a tasty treat or a social drink.

Retreat to Chalet San Pietro's wellness area, situated on the chalet's lowest floor, the perfect place for all your rest and recovery needs. A number of rejuvenating wellness facilities feature here, including a sublime indoor swimming pool, sauna and massage room. Should you wish to continue your day's exercise, the fitness room will ensure you are in peak condition for the slopes. After your pamper session, head to the TV snug area to unwind before bed.

In total, Chalet San Pietro sleeps up to 14 guests across 5 bedrooms. There is a family suite, complete with a double/twin bed, adjoining bunk room (sleeps 4) and en-suite bathroom, making Chalet San Pietro a suitable option for a luxury family ski holiday in Courchevel. Three bedrooms are found on the chalet's lower floor, including the master double/twin bedroom, featuring balcony access and an en-suite bathroom. The final bedroom, a double/twin bedroom with balcony access and an en-suite bathroom, is located on the chalet's ground floor. Due to the configurations of double and twin bedrooms throughout the chalet, mixed groups of family and friends are also suited to Chalet San Pietro.

For additional convenience, guests have access to laundry facilities and a ski room with heated boot warmers, to ensure you are ready for the slopes in style. There is also a garage available for guests.

Located within a hundred meters of the Grangettes gondola, which takes you to Courchevel 1850 in just a few minutes, Chalet San Pietro is an ideal base camp for exploring the 3 Valleys. But also to take advantage of the many discovery activities on offer in the resort.
