Description

Lovely luxury beachfront house for 4 people, with a terrace, deckchairs, direct access to the sea.

Villa Estrela is made up of two quaint fishermen townhouses located in the centre of the old village of Salema. Maintaining the existing typical structural design, the two buildings have been merged to create an original complex made up of two annexes, allowing for a family of four or two couples to enjoy the typical village life, right on the beach. Villa Estrela has direct access to the sandy beach right in front.

House No1 has a hall, fully equipped kitchen with freezer, oven, microwave, dishwasher, pantry/laundry with washing machine; elevator connecting the entrance level and the first floor, small staircase leading to a bedroom with large double bed, with flat screen TV and en-suite shower room.
Access to House No 2 is from the outside, across a small path.
The first floor, has Master bedroom with absolutely stunning views of the beach and Atlantic Ocean right in front, with king size bed, flat screen TV, en-suite shower room, electric curtains. Access to the rooftop terrace of House No 2 is via a glass bridge. The terrace features barbecue, table and chairs for four people, sun beds and sunshade, offering a spectacular setting overlooking the beach.

House No2 directly accessible from the street, House No 2 is an independent annex located across from House No 1. Fully facing the beach (only 3 meters apart), it has outstanding views of the beach in front and allows for comfortable living. It features a small kitchen equipped with freezer and coffee machine. Open space dining and living room, dining area with table and chairs for six people, large living room with flat screen TV, electric blinds and curtains. There is also a WC.
