Description

Chalet Husky is a magnificent and exceptional building located in the very sought-after area Petit Alaska in Val-d'Isere.

Like most alpine constructions, Chalet Husky features traditional architecture with a predominance of wood. This warm, mountain atmosphere is perfectly in keeping with the contemporary design throughout the chalet, but especially in the living room where a magnificent patio on the inside floor reveals a mini tropical forest in the heart of the chalet.
The seven double bedrooms are in the same spirit as in the rest of the Chalet. They can accommodate up to 14 people in optimum comfort.

Discover wellness areas that would be the envy of many hotels, as well as a gym and a natural rock-climbing gym!

Enjoy hotel-like services with staff dedicated to your comfort throughout your stay. An in-house chef makes breakfast, snacks and dinners to suit your every whim. The housekeeping team take care of the daily cleaning of the chalet, provide blanket service and hand out fresh towels every day. The Butler will answer your needs and prepare your Wellness and Leisure space for your activities. The Chalet Manager will be on hand throughout your stay to coordinate your requests with his team.

A private shuttle to the chalet is available throughout the week.
