The elegantly decorated main living room, with a large fireplace for cool autumn evenings, opens onto the lower terrace. The old natural flagstone floor of the ground insures constant coolness in the heat of summer. A fully equipped kitchen with a separate dinning room and a door leads direct to the terraces with comfy seating area and eating area al fresco under the dappled shade of the Plane trees, what better way to enjoy this tranquilly!

The nearby village of la Mole has a small but well-stocked supermarket and an award-winning bakery that sells pies and pizzas. L'Auberge de la Mole, well known restaurant often frequented by celebrities which offers remarkable cuisine from the Périgord in a rustic setting. But the beauty of this location is the proximity to glamour's port of St Tropez only 20 minutes drive or frequent some of the famous restaurants on Pampelonne beach.
