Description

Stylish 4 bedrooms village house with stunning mountain and sea views...
This beautiful stone house has been lovingly restored to the highest standards but still retains the original feel, features and style that makes this Mediterranean house so special.

Cala Deia, is Deia's only small but very beautiful shingle beach, is close by. With its clear waters and rock pools, it is one of the few beaches on the west coast of Mallorca.

Situated in the heart of the iconic village of Deia, one of the most picturesque villages on the island, this house has two terraces, the first with stunning elevated views looking out to sea, perfect for a morning breakfast or an evening dinner as the sun sets.

A second terrace with infinity pool, stretches out with views across the village, to the gardens of the famous La Residencia Hotel and the imposing Traumuntana Mountains.
There is a large open-plan living area including a modern fully equipped kitchen, dining area and lounge area, and 4 beautifully appointed bedrooms all with en-suite bathrooms.
