Local info;
Located in the heart of the Alpilles, Saint Rémy is one of the “musts” of Provence. Its green and subtly scented valleys, its beautiful tastefully restored residences and its charming old cobbled streets have made its success...
Saint-Rémy-de-Provence is a very beautiful village. The site adds to the charm of the stone the north of the town is a humid and fertile plain, and the south climbs towards the white and dry rockeries of the Alpilles.
Difficult to find better, the village nestled behind its circular boulevard which follows the trace of the old ramparts, the secret alleys, well redone, the old houses, the hidden balconies, the painters' shops, the luxury chocolate maker, the renowned confectioner, trendy restaurants... Welcome!

Activities & leisure:
Saint-Rémy has an exceptional cultural heritage (monumental heritage, chapels or squares, etc.). Discover it by traversing the centuries, by visiting its places of memory and its traditions, by going to meet all those who contribute to its cultural influence.
Artists and men of culture have always settled in Saint-Rémy to immerse themselves in the atmosphere of their creation. All keep or have kept an unforgettable memory of their stay, their meetings and the landscapes of the Alpilles. Their works bear witness to this.
