Description

Tagomago island is one of the most beautiful private islands in the Mediterranean, from where it is easy to enjoy all the delights Ibiza has to offer.

A 900m sail from Ibiza's craggy north-east coast brings you to this idyllic and very private island. Secured round the clock by a 24-hour security team, and available fully staffed, on the 600,000m2 Tagomago Island you are treated to breath-taking sea views in every direction.

The private jetty and mooring are on the west coast of the island or, if you prefer, you can fly in by helicopter. Alternatively, a private yacht is available for charter (please ask for details).
The mansion sits in the centre of the craggy isle, surrounded by scented hillsides of Mediterranean shrubs. Wind your way along clifftop paths to admire the glittering views, spot seabirds and other wildlife, and discover the century-old lighthouse that sits at the far south of your island.
Located on a shallow hump of the island's central ridge, the mansion and its terraces and pool area enjoy magnificent views east and west. Welcome each day watching the sun rise over the Mediterranean to the east, then revel in Ibiza's legendary sunset as you watch the sun dip through the colourful sky to disappear behind the island of Ibiza in the west. This truly is a magnificent spot.

The sparkling 17m x 8m pool is fringed by a wide terrace, dotted with loungers and romantic day beds, offering a myriad of places to relax or soak up the warm Ibiza sunshine. The terrace also boasts a Jacuzzi with a jaw-droppingly beautiful view to Ibiza.
The main living space – a vast and pristine room of grey tiled floor and leather sofas, ideal for entertaining – opens onto the pool terrace via tall, folding glass doors and a terrace of al-fresco sofa seating.

An interior dining space, seating twelve, enjoys sliding glass doors to another terrace space. This broad terrace has bar seating, a further pair of daybeds and views to Ibiza. The large, professionally equipped kitchen has garden views while, alongside, an al-fresco dining area, seating twelve, sits under the shade of a sail-like awning.
The spacious bedrooms feature high-tech luxuries, such as Sonos and HD cinema TVs throughout, and spa-like en-suite bathrooms. All enjoy panoramic sea views.

A truly luxurious island escape which puts you within easy sailing distance of Ibiza's legendary beaches and beach bars.
