Description

Villa Brenna is a charming eight bedroom beach house is set in its own private five acre estate in the picturesque village of Saint-Jean-de-Luz and close to fashionable Biarritz. Sleeping 15 guests, the villa exudes a homely farmhouse feel styled with a splash of seaside décor. Each bedroom is en-suite with dreamy Atlantic and Pyrenees views to wake up to and wow at.

Maison Brenna is a family built and run villa and estate blooming with lavender and cool palms. In a spectacular setting with views over the rugged Pyrenees and Atlantic it is the perfect place to experience French life at your own pace.

On the ground floor one enters via a hall, straight ahead is a large fully equipped kitchen with dinning area. There is a guest cloakroom with WC and a larder. To one side is the larger living room with doors to the terrace.
All the bedrooms and suites are all en-suite and individual, featuring a fresh interior style of blues and whites, mosaic and checkered Basque linen with a humorous French cockerel here and there. Rooms come with fluffy bathrobes and botanical and luxurious L'Occitane bathroom treats. There are 3 bedrooms on the ground floor opening on to the garden and the 4 bedrooms on the first floor open onto a private balcony.

Outside is a large garden with lawn, a large terrace with BBQ and outdoor dinning facilities with a Jacuzzi and sleek salt-water swimming pool.

The Villa is ideal places for all forms of activates, such as surfing, walking, sightseeing etc……
The closest beaches are Lafitenia (beside the villa) which hosted the surfing World Master Championship 1999 / 2000, there is also Mayarco and Grande Plage which has four beach clubs nearby, with water sports such as surfing, sailing and windsurfing are available and has plenty of surf schools, camps and equipment hire shops for those who want to learn.
There are plenty of walks to explore the rustic villages and the beautiful countryside and nature. There are good coastal paths near Saint-Jean-de-Luz and also the extensive Pyrenees to hike in and for does who like golf, 11 golf courses including the famous Le Phare it is a renowned golfing destination which is not to far

For the less sportive type plenty of sightseeing to be done, the Basque culture capital Bayonne, or explore the many picturesque countryside one-street villages and sample local produce from the farmers market in Saint-Jean-Pied-de-Port.
Saint-Jean-de-Luz is a spa town has some pretty boutiques in the winding streets of the historic old town just 50 metres from the beach. There are also daily markets selling local produce and the area is well known for thalassotherapy which is a treatment with salt water, seaweed and algae and works for anything from migraines to rheumatism to sprained ankles
The Pays Basque area which spills over into the north of Spain has incredible food and wine from the vineyards of Bordeaux to the restaurants of San Sebastian which is home to more Michelin Star restaurants than any other European city and it is not far from Bilbao, renowned for its culture, superb gastronomy and the Guggenheim museum.
